

Cargotec Supplier Code of Conduct

We, Cargotec Corporation and our affiliates (collectively, “Cargotec” or “we”), strive to be the undisputed market leader in cargo handling systems and related services by being the number one choice for our customers and by growing our business sustainably.

We are committed to full compliance with applicable national laws and regulations. We are a signatory member of UN Global Compact and committed to the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises.

To support our goals and to ensure that our suppliers (“Suppliers” or “our suppliers”) are aware of our expectations and standpoint, we have adopted this Supplier Code of Conduct. The Supplier Code of Conduct harmonizes with the Cargotec Code of Conduct and is based on international codes such as United Nations (UN) Universal Declaration of Human Rights and International Labor Organization (ILO) Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work and the UN Convention against Corruption. At Cargotec all employees must follow the Cargotec Code of Conduct and we expect our suppliers to comply with similar standards as outlined in this document.

Cargotec Suppliers are an integral part of our total supply chain. We choose our suppliers with care and on the basis of objective factors such as quality, reliability, delivery and price, without preference for personal reasons. We understand that, while Cargotec Suppliers are independent entities, their business practices and actions may impact us and our reputation. Therefore, we expect all of our suppliers, and their employees, agents, and subcontractors (collectively, “Representatives”), to adhere to the standards in this Cargotec Supplier Code of Conduct (“Code of Conduct”) while they are conducting business with and/ or on behalf of Cargotec. Further, we expect from our suppliers competence and continuous improvement in quality, cost control, innovation and reliability.

Cargotec and individual Suppliers can also contractually agree on further specific requirements when appropriate or necessary. Compliance with the principles laid forth in this Code is always stipulated in agreements with Suppliers and can be guided by this or the Suppliers own Code of Conduct.

The Supplier shall have a process in place to verify compliance towards the standards of the Code and shall, upon request, participate in self-assessments or audits organized by Cargotec. Cargotec has the right to audit how Suppliers and sub-contractors fulfil the principles in the Code of Conduct. For identified non-compliance Cargotec and the Supplier shall decide on corrective action plans.

The Supplier shall on recurring basis keep itself updated on changes to the Code. The updated Code will be posted at <http://www.cargotec.com> under sustainability pages.

Compliance with Applicable Laws

Our suppliers shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

This Code is not a substitute for nor should it be considered in any manner to override any applicable laws and regulations in any jurisdiction.
